Activities

Tops in student activities was the Student Council,

Besides its many projects the Student Council sells pop corn and candy at athletic events, plans after game dances, runs the concession stand, and governs all the student's activities.

Three people who made our pop corn sales soar this year were Sally Smith, Carol Reader, and Frank Giegler.

Sporting new scotch kilts, our cheerleaders, led by captain Carol Michaels, proved to be the Highlanders' strongest rooters. Through thick and thin the cheerleaders were always on the job, cheering our teams on.

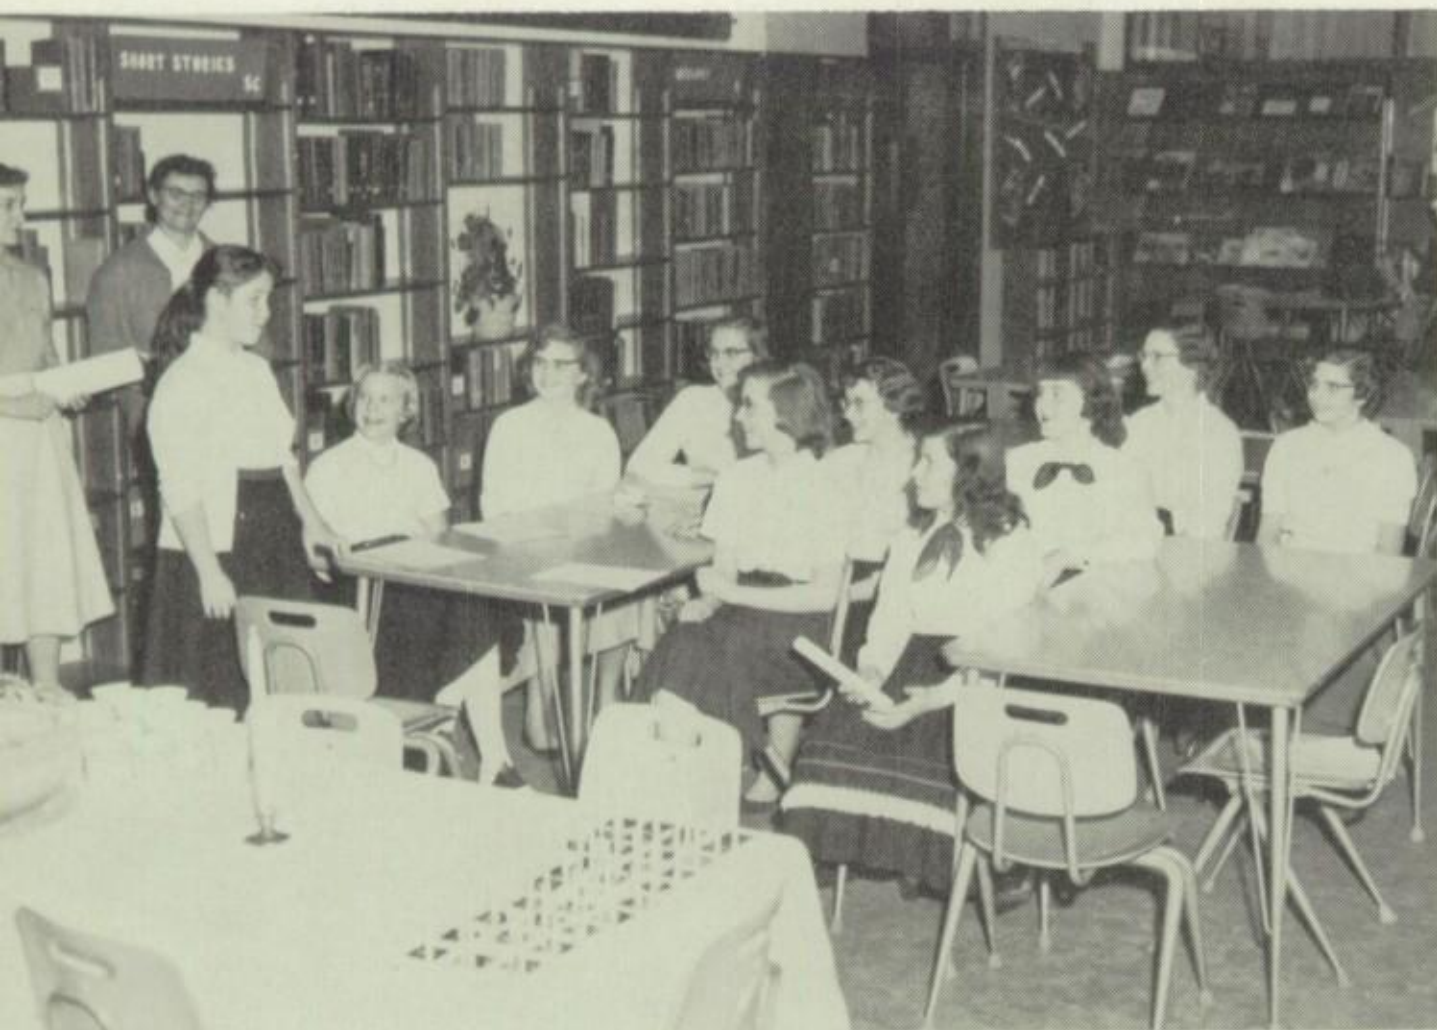

Theirs was a busy season planning all the pep-meetings, and making the new uniforms, besides keeping our students on their toes during each game.

The Junior Varsity cheerleaders rooted the second team on to victories during football and basketball seasons and were prepared to take over in the absence of any varsity cheerleader.

Members of this year's Junior Varsity squad are: P. Downen, J. Klier, J. Hayward, and S. Bellinger.

Christian Living was emphasized in the Formal initiation being held for Junior Y-Teens S. Stickles, P. Blackmar, J. Blaine, V. Wolfe, J. Hoffman, B. Hoel, M. Belz, D. Morgan, C. Dieterle, and D. Dinkel.

Service to the school and community is the theme of the Y-Teens with various club projects holding the interest of the groups: ushering at school functions, collecting canned goods at Christmas time, checking coats at basketball games, engraving pens, and presenting the school with useful gifts. A Senior Y-Teens highlight is the annual style show given in the spring.

Senior Y-Teen members include: (standing) Mrs. Remus, sponsor, N. Heller, N. Jubb, J. Bishop, G. Franks, K. Johnson, R. Richards, P. Downen, B. Henning, J. Lounsberry, C. Marr, J. Harmon, M. White. (Sitting) J. Hayward, G. Henderson, S. Smith, D. Walker, K. Wonch, J. Bushrey, D. Pearson, R. Walker, C. Wilnow, S. Hoover, R. Richards.

Youth for Christ club president, Oliver Allbright, introduces the speaker of the day to his clubbers.

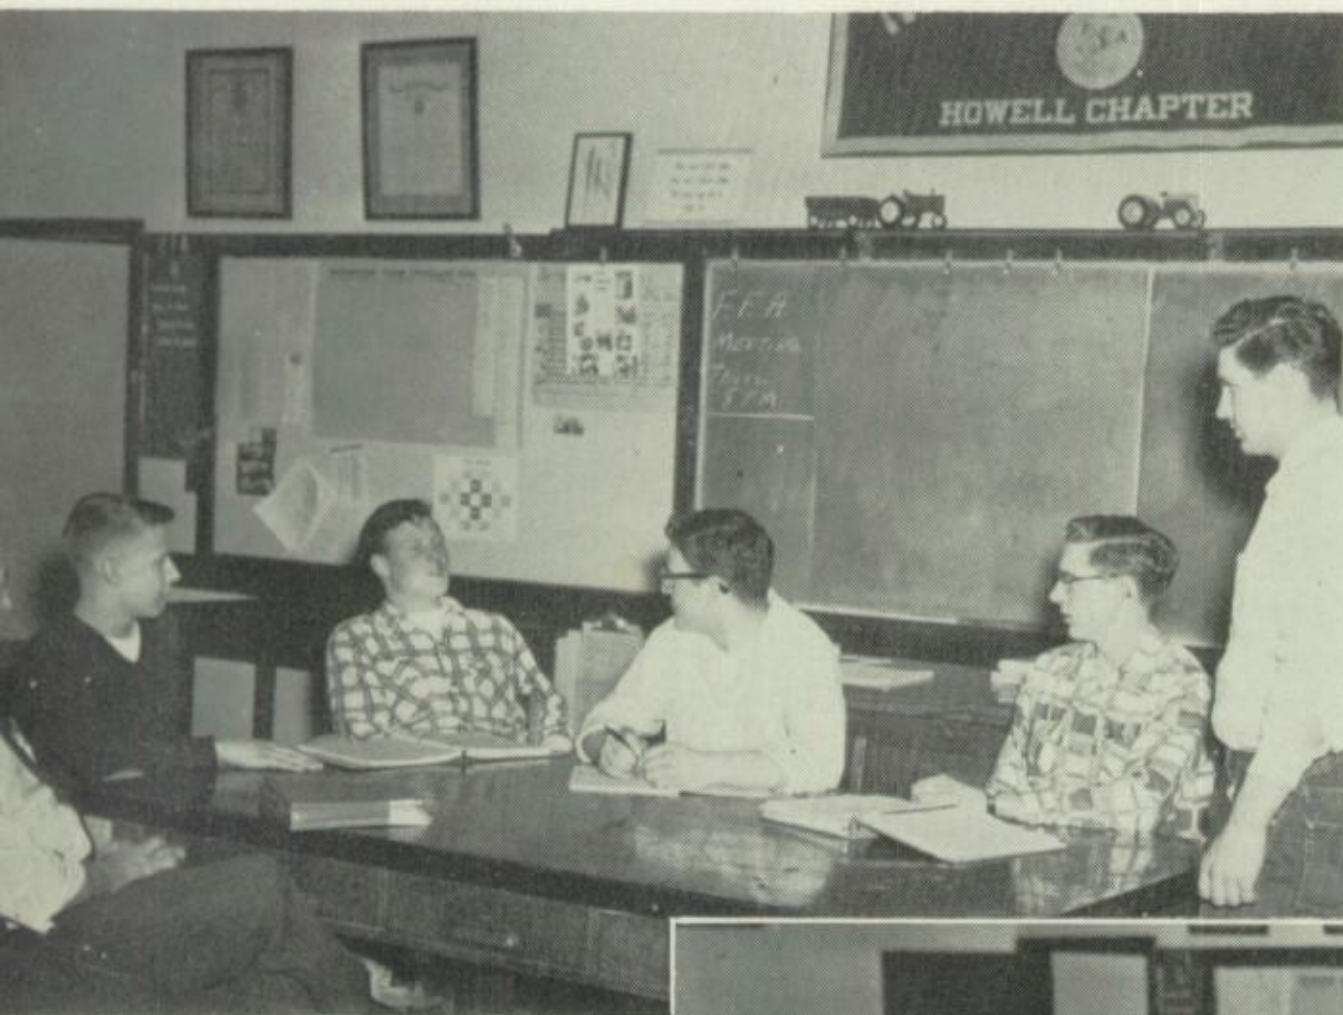

The senior Hi-Y is a Christian organization composed of young men in grades 10-12, who believe in clean living, hard work, and healthful play. School service is one of the objectives of the club, and several projects were carried out during the year including obtaining a flag for the gym, mirrors for the lavatories, and repair of the bleachers in the gym.

Hi-Y President, Ken Schimmelpfenneg, adds a little humor to his agenda.

Members include Stan Warner, George Hayward, Bill Earl, Glenn Gillett, Harold Haller, Oliver Allbright, Malcolm Cox, Mr. Fulk, advisor, Glen Meyer, Dick Schnackenberg, Dick Meyer, and Jim Murphy.

The F.F.A. learned farming fundamentals;

Our Future Farmers are one of the most active groups in school with lawn spraying, farm projects and recreation.

The executive board meets with sponsor Merle Weaver to talk about future plans. Byron Rogers, Eugene Steinacker, Lee Ward, Bill Bugard, and president Earl Ward.

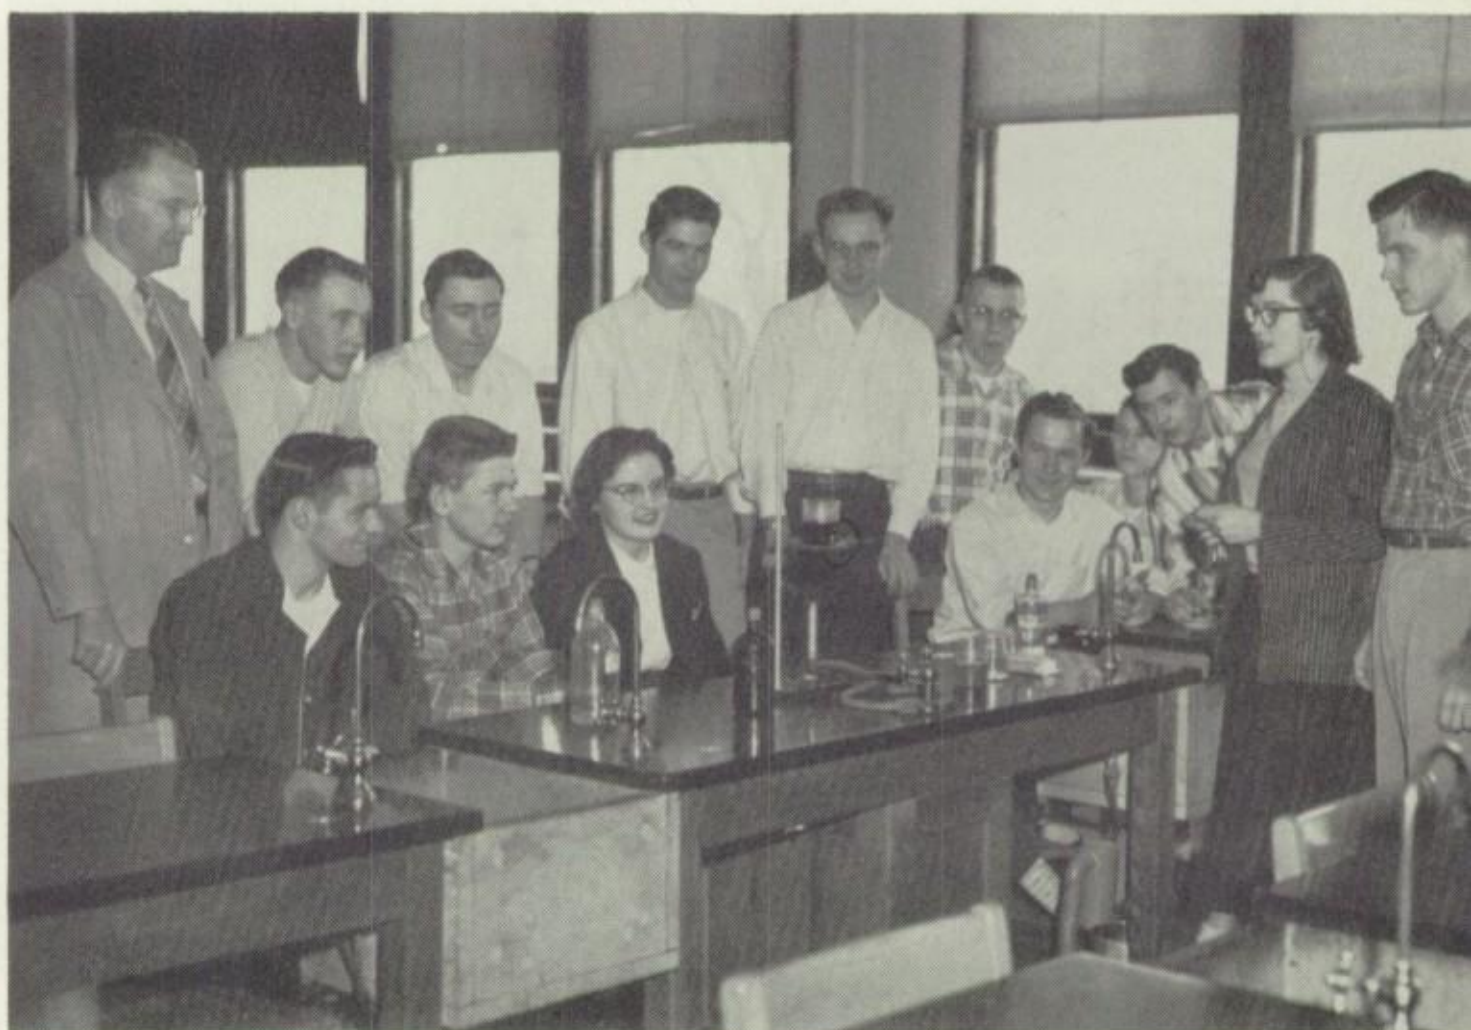

Noon recreation is enjoyed by Eugene Seiple, William Craft, Jim Belz, Dick Dankers, Gary Allen, Charles Kimberly, Byron Rogers, Robert Franklin, Bill Bamber, Mel Gentry, Warner West, Dick Ikens, Jake Dankers, and Ross Kedde.

Mr. Rosenzweig in his first year as bandmaster, began the development of a greater Howell High School band. Starting with a stepped-up instrumental program in the elementary grades, and continuing into the high school, the leader hopes to build a fine music department for the school. This week's news is checked by "Green and Gold" staff members: Nancy Jubb, Brenda Beurmann, Stan Warner, Sherrie Seales, Beth Whalen, Jim Gaines, Josey Somma, Ken Schimmel, Beverly Henning, Jeanette Hauser, Elaine Livingston, Oliver Albright, Sylvia Warner, Bill Burtch, Mr. Jameson, instructor.

Journalism made its formal bow this year at Howell, with the "Torch" and "Green and Gold" staffs combining to form a publications council.

The editors of the yearbook learned the functions of the newspaper, as well as all the tricks in yearbook publishing.

Both juniors and seniors participated in the class, and great improvement in the school publications was shown.

Our Highlanders won the undisputed Capital Circuit football championship for the first time. Coach Harold Fulk's charges compiled the enviable record of having only seven points scored on them in nine games.

Although the offensive unit was no ball of fire, it capitalized on the breaks to score vital points, and gained a total of 1,981 yards. The leading ground-gainer was Gerald Humphries with an average of seven yards per carry. Doug Gerkin led the passers with 13 completions in 26 attempts.

Oliver Allbright was elected honorary captain, and John McCloskey made several of the mythical All-State teams. Bill Earl, Jim Rogers, Dick McMacken, and Charlie Brigham were given honorable mention on these teams.

In Memoriam: Edwin Reid Baldwin

Born: April 10, 1938

Died: January 4, 1956

"We are reminded that the days of the human journey are to some much shorter than to others... Thus it was with the journey of Ed Baldwin, our friend and classmate. Ed began serving the Class of '56 in the eighth grade when he was elected treasurer. In his freshman year, he was a member of the Junior Hi-Y, and in the sophomore year earned awards in golf and junior-varsity basketball and football. Ed was student council representative in the junior year. This year Ed was co-chairman of the magazine sales. His interpretation of George in the senior class play, "Our Town," will long be remembered.

Our class activities were coordinated by our officers.

Superintendent John S. Page.
M.A., University of Michigan,
Honorary M.Ed., Michigan State University.

Our Board of Education had a busy year building four elementary schools, renovating the central building for junior-senior high school use, and seeing that each student was given the best possible education. Mr. Page has served thirty-four years as superintendent of our public schools. Because of his dedication and diligence, we have a highly respected school system.

The Board of Education in action. President Glen Slayton discusses an important matter with members: Berthold Woodhams, treasurer; Wilfred Erwin; Charles Ward; Edward Fritch, secretary; Mr. Page and Arlene Cronenwett, school secretary.

Many people added to our everyday comforts.

Cleanliness is important and the custodians kept our school spic and span. Checking the boilers are: Lewis Raymer; James Foster; Earl Handy; maintenance supervisor Lowell Dyer; and Adrian "Tony" Banghart.

Sanitary preparation and serving of tasty food were the objectives of our kitchen force: Ila Rossman, Ernestine Spalding, Jean Crandall, and Stella Lovas.

Careful and courteous handling of the school busses gave us safe transportation to and from school.

Top row: Jessie Parham, Frank Green Jr., Fred Fox, Joe Helmor, and Harry Waldron.
Seated: Maynard Bird, Guy Knoop, Robert Gies, (bus supervisor), Duane Meyer, Carl Walt, and Sam Hasbrouck.
